The collection was created in a synergy of generations, by a tandem of father and son:

Oleh et Alexandre Denysenko
CHARITABLE SALE EXHIBITION
MODERN UKRAINIAN EPIC
EPITAPHS AND ELEGIES

Oleh Denysenko – a Ukrainian artist of international renown; a holder of 30+ awards worldwide; full member of Academic Senate of the International Academy of Modern Art in Rome.

Alexandre Denysenko – a film director, art-visionary, and co-author of gessography; a holder of 30+ international awards, pupil and assistant of Oscar winning director Andrzej Wajda.

GESOGRAPHY — A NEW KIND OF FINE ART

In the artworks presented at the exhibition, the authors employed a groundbreaking technique of gessography. This new kind of fine arts is a Ukrainian patented invention and a new artistic idiom to last as an intellectual heritage for the generations to come.

THE NEW YORK TIMES

Tanya Mohn, 27 avril 2022

"Oleh Denysenko is best known for his intricate etchings... his recent works are rendered in a new technique he has created called "gessography", combining the age-old methods of engraving with gesso and painting."

GESOGRAPHY – A MODERN UKRAINIAN EPIC

As far as its core subject matter, gessography is an epic story, told through the language of art, about the eternal struggle between good and evil.

The world's public recognizes these artworks as allegorical narratives of Ukraine's brave resistance to Russia's aggression, of the war that is not just a 'conflict in Ukraine' but a clash of light and darkness.

Lidia Markiewicz

Lidia Markiewicz born in Poland lives and works in Luxembourg.

She has won several awards, including the Cross of Merit from the Republic of Poland in 2008 and the City Prize of Legnica in 2015.

Since 1975 she has had numerous personal and collective exhibitions in Europe and Australia.

She is the author of various didactic programmes and initiator of artistic and cultural events, particularly for the European Parliament in Brussels and Luxembourg.

TRUE PLEASURE OF PAINTING

Deeply personal and yet firmly anchored in a vigorous tradition of the abstract school, Lidia Markiewicz's paintings are experienced as an authentic moment of choice hidden between the liveliness of nuances and the aesthetics of chiaroscuro, between the mixture of thoughts and the courage of lyricism.

The true pleasure of painting passes through the canvases with energy, leaving an imprint of an experience of the moment mixed with plastic maturity" M.W.

EPITAPHS AND ELEGIES

The abyss of war, landscapes of blood, the bread full of fear.

However, the land remembers and will introduce the order of rebirth.

Life will dance in its eternal cycle.

Even though there are still forests burning, let's take care of the roses!

ARTISTIC VOICES
RESIST RUSSIAN AGGRESSION

"The motto of our exhibition – "I wish for peace" – is a reference to the perennial truth:

"If you wish for peace, prepare for war".

Peacefulness includes the ability to stand up for one's values. Ukrainians are a peaceful nation, but they never hesitate to defend their freedom.

To resist the evil, the good should be well-armed. That is why a significant part of our work is the charitable component and support of Ukraine".

CHARITABLE COMPONENT

A charitable auction will be conducted as part of the exhibition. «Good hunt» artwork bearing an inscription by Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces of Ukraine, Valeri Zaloujny, will be offered as a special auction lot.

All proceeds from the auction — as well as part of the proceeds from the sale of other works — will be donated to the cause of defending democratic values in Ukraine.
